

SWEARS HALLERAN LEFT HOTEL WITH THE "WHITE HOPE"

Woman Witness for Defense Denies Stories Told by Witnesses for Wife.

Mrs. Sarah G. Halleran and her sister, Mrs. Helen Connolly, wife of Borough President Maurice E. Connolly, of Queens, sat together to-day in Justice Kelly's part of the Supreme Court, Long Island City, when Alphonse G. Halleran began his defense to his wife's divorce suit. The Borough President was there also, for he is named as co-respondent in a counter suit brought by Halleran and is defendant as well in an action for $50,000 damages asked by Halleran for the alienation of Mrs. Halleran's affections.

Women of the classic names of "Phry" and "White Hope" figured in the testimony yesterday when the details of a visit to the Flushing Hotel, supposed to have occurred after an outing of the Jefferson Club, were given. Halleran, Mrs. Rose Callahan, of No. 53 Broadway, Flushing; Samuel Brackner, Samuel Gluck and Halleran and the "White Hope," whom Mrs. Callahan identified to-day as Miss Cecilia Galden, were said to have visited the hotel, had many drinks and afterward separated, Halleran and Miss Galden remaining at the hotel.

Mrs. Callahan, whose home is over a hardware store, which Halleran once ran, testified that the entire party left the hotel together. Mrs. Florence Hank, wife of the former proprietor of the hotel, took the stand long enough to identify the register on which Halleran depends to support his statement that he did not take a room there.

Halleran, in his own defense, admitted visiting various hotels with parties of men and women, but denied every one of his wife's charges. He was asked how he came to break with Samuel Brackner, who had once been an intimate friend, but who testified against him, and said that he had dropped him after trouble over a check.

WHITE SLAVER SENTENCED

Refrigerator of Seventeen-Year-Old Girl Is Given Two Years.

After the Government had put in its testimony to-day in support of an indictment charging violation of the white slave law Nathan Folkowsky on trial before Judge Thomas in the Criminal Branch of the Federal District Court, gave up the fight and entered a plea of guilty. He was sentenced to serve two years in the State Reformatory at Elmira.

Folkowsky was married on Dec. 1 last and on the following day he persuaded his wife, seventeen years old, to leave her home in Brooklyn. He took her to Camden, then to Philadelphia, and finally to Chicago.

The girl said Folkowsky induced her to leave home by promising to marry her when he got a divorce from his wife.

THREE I. W. W. HELD FOR ROBBING FELLOW "WORKER" OF $2.75

Lodger in Headquarters Says His Money Paid for Meal for Conspirators.

Samuel Caplan, whose name as a member of the I. W. W. is Thomas Donnelly; Peter Burke and Edward Gibbons, all residing in the loft used as the headquarters of the I. W. W. at No. 313 Grand street, were each held in $5,000 bail by Chief Magistrate McAdoo to-day on a charge of robbery preferred by Morris Sindler, at one time resident of the Salvation Army Hotel, but recently a member of the I. W. W. and a resident in the loft. They will be held for the Grand Jury.

The defendants were arrested by Detectives Shine and Mundy of the Clinton street station on Monday night. Sindler said that he was set upon by the men in the loft, a towel being thrown over his head while one of the men took $2.75 from his pocket. According to testimony, the three then went out to a restaurant. Five witnesses, young unemployed men who were in the loft, testified in behalf of Sindler. Chief Magistrate

McAdoo ordered them sent to the House of Detention in order to have them testify at the trial. Gibbons, who said he was a communist, assumed the role of counsel for himself and his fellows. He examined the witnesses and then took the stand and said: "No man with $2.75 would want to come to our headquarters and sleep on the floor, as this man did, and eat black bread and coffee. Anyhow, he has not worked for weeks. Where did he get $2.75? When the complainant was sick, a few days ago, I went out and made a collection in his behalf. I got money for him to get a good bed to sleep on." Asked why he had used an assumed name, Caplan said he had been told when he joined the I. W. W. that he could use any name that suited his fancy.
